NAME

Mail::Box−Index − list of all extended documentation

DESCRIPTION

All methods defined by MailBox are documented, but you still need to get a grip on the large picture: the relations between the modules and the methods. These larger explanations are included in the DETAILS of the manual pages, and listed here below. Of course, each page has a DESCRIPTION section as well, which tells some bare necessities about the module.

Only the HTML version of this manual page will list the sections.
